

Get Fired Up About Metal Clay!

If you're creating with metal clay or want to learn how, you should be a member of AMCAW (The Alliance for Metal Clay Arts Worldwide), an international, non-profit organization.

We provide resources and programs to help you develop your artistic potential, and create opportunities for you to help shape the future of metal clay.

Why Join AMCAW?

- Free Flash & Fire Tutorial Collection (value of $300)
- Free quarterly Virtual Guild meetings featuring live presentations from leading metal clay artists across the globe
- Free members-only artist challenges with fabulous prizes
- Discounts on AMCAW conferences, publications, and events
- And so much more!

Check it out at amcaw.org/join

Images courtesy of the artists (clockwise from top right): Liz Sabol, Donna Penoyer, Cindy Pope, Martha Biggar (photo by Robert Diamante), Robert Dancik

©2020 Alliance for Metal Clay Arts Worldwide

Get Fired Up at SINTERSM!

SINTER, AMCAW's first international metal clay conference, will be the don't-miss metal clay event of 2021.

The heart of SINTER will be a jam-packed three-day conference, where you can choose your favorite twelve presentations from among twenty being offered.

Then, add on a two-day workshop by a leading metal clay artist either before or after the event: five innovative workshops will be offered pre-conference, and another five post-conference. It's something to get fired up about!

SINTER at a Glance:

- May 12–18, 2021
- Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, USA
- 3-day conference with 20 different presentations
- 5 two-day optional workshops by leading artists before the conference, another 5 workshops following the conference

Find out more at sinterconference.com

©2020 Alliance for Metal Clay Arts Worldwide

